Website Privacy Policy and Disclaimer

Privacy Policy

As is required by current government policy and legislation, Lighthouse Health Group endorses safe and fair Client information handling practices. Any information provided during the use of the Lighthouse Health Group website, including identification of individuals, will be used only for the purpose intended and where this purpose requires confidentiality, the information will be kept confidential unless required by law.

Website "cookies" and logs are used for statistical purposes and to customise the user experience on the Lighthouse site. No attempt will be made by us made to identify specific users or their browsing activity. De-identified data from these logs may be used to update and improve our website and to report to the operator and/or owner of this site.

You can choose to selectively or completely disable cookies in your browser settings. However, the latter may affect how you are able to interact with other websites.

Disclaimer

Any information contained on the Lighthouse website is made available for the benefit of persons interested in the subject matter and with the understanding that the authors of this website are not responsible for the results of any actions you take based on the information contained on this website nor for any error in or omission from that information.

If you link to this website, we will not be liable for anything done or omitted to be done caused by or in connection with you linking to this website.

The links provided throughout the site are provided for the benefit of interested persons and with the understanding that the authors, operators and/or owners of this website are not responsible for the content or any other aspect of these links.

Acknowledgement

I have read, understood and accept Lighthouse Health Group's Privacy and Disclaimer Policy.
